Game Capsule Summary

Orfordville's Joe Cox and Fort Atkinson's Terry Steppke were locked up in a Home Talent Sunday League pitcher's duel through 5 innings at Purdy Park until Fort Atkinson's Chris Koepke walked, advanced to second on a defensive muff of a bunt, and then scored on Tim Buchta's groundball base hit to left. The error was the first of six that would set the pace for the Orioles' third Sunday defeat of the season.

After the first two batters reached base for the Generals in the 7th, Shane Hart was called on to relieve Cox. After a one-out walk, the next four batters singled and then two more walked, before Hart settled down and struck out the next two Generals batters to end the 5-run deluge to stake Fort to a 6-1 lead. Hart fared no better in the 8th as he allowed 4 unearned runs on 4 hits and three infield errors. Reliever Brad London held Fort scoreless in the 9th.

Cox struck out 8 and allowed four walks and two earned runs in 6 innings. Steppke went the distance for Fort, striking out 6 and walking 3 with two earned runs on 7 hits to earn the 10-2 victory.

The Orioles' bright spot were three doubles, two by Jarmon Crowley and one by B.J. Cook. The Orioles were out-hit 12-7.
