Game Capsule Summary

Utica's Mark Ellingson surrendered 12 hits to the Orfordville Orioles on Monday in Home Talent Sunday League play, but still went on to pitch a complete game 7-3 victory. The Orioles' Jarmon Crowley went 3 for 5 against Ellingson while Kyle Bates blasted three hits for Utica, including two doubles.

Zach Jones started on the mound for Orfordville and allowed three earned runs before yielding to reliever Patrick Moore in the 5th inning. Doug Vike hit a two-run homer off Jones in the third inning to give Utica a lead that they would not surrender. Vike nearly went yard again in the 8th off Moore, but Orioles' rightfielder B.J. Cook made a leaping catch to snare the ball off the top of the fence.

It was another sloppy defensive day for Orfordville as the Orioles committed 6 errors for the second time in as many games.

Schedule / Changes:

The Orioles will entertain the Monroe Brewers at 7:30 pm on Thursday at Purdy Park in Orfordville.
