Game Capsule Summary

Orfordville Orioles Patrick Moore came on in relief of Joe Cox on Sunday at Purdy Park to hold the visiting second place Utica Association at six runs and give his teammates a chance to come from behind and earn a 10-6 victory in Home Talent baseball. Moore also had 3 hits in 4 at bats highlighted by an rbi single in the 6th to score Trevor Wallace and give the Orioles a 7-6 lead.

The Orioles added three insurance runs in their 8th when Wallace singled to lead off and Nate Tilley coaxed a walk off Utica's reliever Scott Hestnes. B.J.Cook doubled off the left field wall to score Wallace. Moore then added to his heroics with his third single of the day scoring Tilley and moving Cook to third. Nate Henke doubled to left center to score Cook and Moore was caught while rounding third and was tagged out.

In the Utica third inning, Matt Ellingson delivered a 3-run double to leftcenter to give Utica a 4-0 lead.

Orfordville managed to score in their half of the 3rd after Tilley doubled and Cook drove him in with an infield single. The Orioles tied the game in their 4th courtesy of a dropped flyball in the outfield with the bases loaded, and back-to-back 2-run singles by Cook and Moore. Moore drove in 4 runs for Orfordville shadowed by Cook's 3 rbi day.

Schedule / Changes:

Orfordville will travel to the Edgerton Racetrack Park on Wednesday (July 4th) to take on the division-leading Albion Tigers at 1 pm in a Sunday League game.
