Game Capsule Summary

For the second time in as many games, Dan Senobe singled, stole second and scored the go ahead run as the host Orfordville Orioles came back from a 3-0 deficit to eventually clobber the Stoughton Merchants 9-3 in Home Talent amateur baseball play at Purdy Park.

Merchants' starter seemed to have the Orioles hitters baffled through the first 5 innings as he limited them to just 4 hits and no runs. Joe Cox came on to relieve Orioles' starter Kevin Risseuw on the mound in the top of the 6th and struck out 2 of 3 batters faced.

With one out in the Orioles' 6th, Nate Henke doubled down the left field line and scored on a double by the next hitter, Senobe. B.J. Cook drove Senobe home with an infield single. Patrick Moore then doubled in Cook to knot the score at 3-3.

The Merchants only sent three men to the plate in their 7th as Cox began to close down their offense. Trevor Wallace doubled with two outs in the Orioles' 7th, but was left stranded when Wilberg struck out Henke to end the inning.

Stoughton sent four men to the plate in their 8th, but never threatened. The Orioles gained the lead and blew the game open in their 8th by scoring 6 runs off Stoughton reliever Justin Moore, highlighted by Senobe's efforts. Orfordville collected 7 of their 16 hits in the 8th to earn the 9-3 win.
