Game Capsule Summary

Shoddy defense was the rule of the day at Purdy Park on Sunday as Orfordville committed 7 errors and Deerfield made 5, but the Orioles prevailed to take an 11-6 victory and improve their Home Talent Sunday record to 8-7. The Orioles are out of the running for a Sunday playoff berth, both of which have been clinched by divisional foes Utica and Albion.

Trevor Wallace was the Orioles' offensive star with a 3 for 5 day at the plate, 2 stolen bases, and 4 runs scored. Seth Hendricks was a close second, also going 3 for 5 with an rbi.

Patrick Moore started on the mound for Orfordville and pitched through 6 innings, allowing 8 hits, striking out 7 and walking 5. It was not a standout "control" day for Moore, but with 6 defensive blunders behind him, he pitched good enough to earn the win with the help of reliever Joe Cox. Cox came on in the 7th and finished the game, allowing only one hit and striking out 4 of the 11 batters he faced.

Steve Klawitter touched Moore for a meaningless double in the 3rd, but hit a two out home run in the 6th to bring the Demons to a 7-6 margin. Moore struck out the next batter to end the 6th.

Wallace led off the Orioles' 7th with a single to left and then stole his second base of the day. B.J. Cook walked and Moore was hit with a pitch to load the bases. Cox then walked to score Wallace. Zach Jones followed with a sacrifice fly to right field to plate Cook. Hendricks singled to right to score Moore, but Cox was cut down at the plate to end the Orioles' threat.

Highlighting the Orioles' 14 hit in addition to the efforts of Wallace and Hendricks, Nate Henke, Moore, and Aaron Laursen each contributed two hits with Henke driving in Wallace for an insurance run in the 8th with a double to the warning track in left center.
