Game Capsule Summary

Joe Cox pitched a two hitter and belted a two run homer in the 4th inning to lead his visiting Orfordville Orioles to a 2-1 first round Home Talent Night league playoff victory over the Ridgeway Cardinals. Next Thursday, the Orioles will take on the winner of the Wiota – Verona match up played at Verona.

Trevor Wallace collected three hits in 3 at bats for the Orioles to lead all hitters, including the first hit of the game, a leadoff double off the wall, but Orfordville stranded Wallace at third. The Orioles gathered 9 hits, but stranded 8 runners on the night.

The Cardinals got an unearned run off Cox in their first courtesy of two Orioles' errors. Cox cruised for most of the game except in the 6th inning, when after two outs an infield error allowed Adam Halverson to reach base. Cox walked the next two batters to load the bases, but coaxed Dusty Alfred to line out to him on the mound to end the Cardinal threat.

Schedule / Changes:

Next Thursday, the Orioles will play the winner of the Wiota-Verona game; site to be determined.
