Game Capsule Summary

Visiting Orfordville exploded for 5 runs in their half of the 7th inning Thursday night to earn a 7-2 victory over the New Glarus Tourists in Home Talent baseball action. Capping the 5-run barrage was B.J. Cook's towering line drive 2-run home run to left field. Although Cook's blast was enough for the winning margin, Orioles' catcher Seth Hendricks chimed in with his second 2-rbi hit of the night with a single to left.

In the 6th with New Glarus leading 2-0 through 5 innings with one hit to their credit, the Orioles Johnny Kline laid down a one out sacrifice bunt, advancing Zach Jones and Joe Cox to second and third respectively. Hendricks delivered a two out ground rule double to left, scoring Jones and Cox and tying the game.

Hendricks had three hits for Orfordville with two singles and a double accounting for 4 rbi on the night. Cook, Patrick Moore, and Cris Cartmill had two hits apiece for the Birds. Zach Jones started on the mound for Orfordville and pitched through 5 innings, and although he struggled with his control, he only allowed a bunt single. Jones gave way to Bobby Findlay who pitched the last two frames and struck out 5 of the 6 New Glarus batters he faced.

Schedule / Changes:

The Orioles, (1-5) in Home Talent Sunday league play, will travel to Stoughton on Sunday for a 1 pm game at Stoughton high school field.
